

AUpper Devonian Sandstone Play Review@

Appalachian Region PTTC Workshop – May 26, 2005
Holiday Inn – Meadow Lands; Washington, PA
8:00 a.m. Sign-in; 9:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Pittsburgh Association of Petroleum Geologists

Overview

Recent explosion in Upper Devonian drilling activity in Pennsylvania and WV has created an interest among industry in learning more about how these wells are located, drilled, logged, completed and produced. New approaches have proven to be more efficient and cost effective. PTTC's Appalachian Region Producer Advisory Group members strongly endorsed the concept of this workshop, and believe that it will fill an important need for information on the application of new methods in these plays.

It is designed for geologists and engineers with an interest in, or who are actively working in, Upper Devonian Sandstone plays in the Appalachian basin. Service companies, investors, land men, students and government agencies also will find the program to be of interest and value.

Schedule

Sign-in and workshop material distribution will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, May 26, 2005. The workshop will begin at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at 5:00 p.m.
